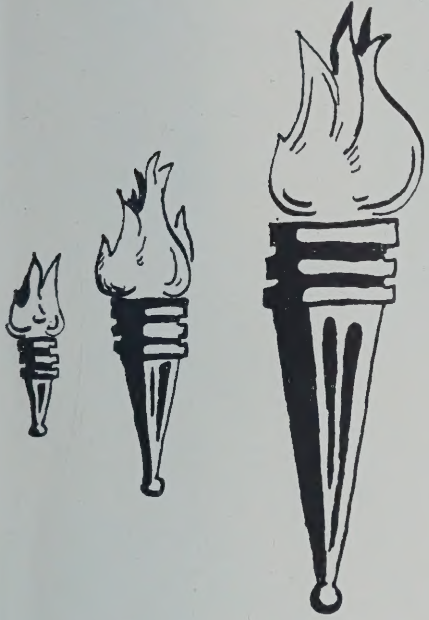
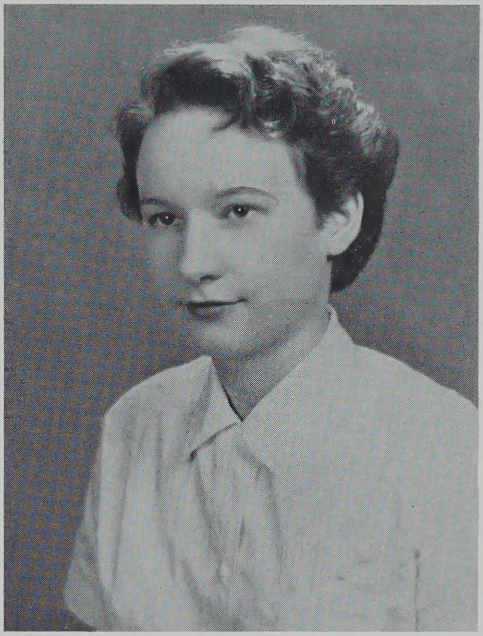
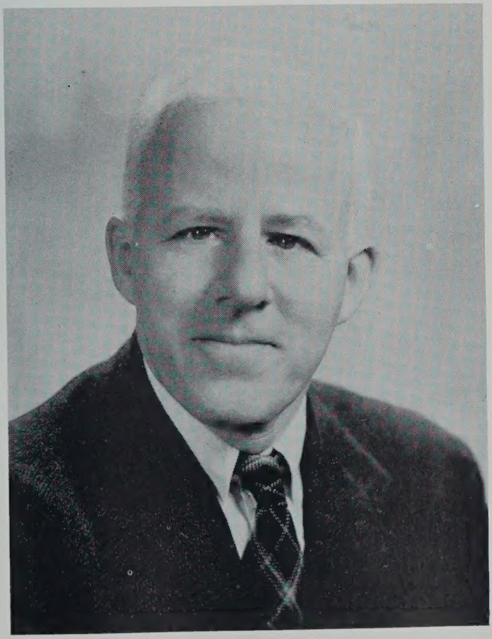
In Appreciation From The Class of '58

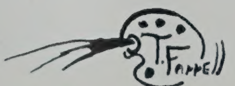


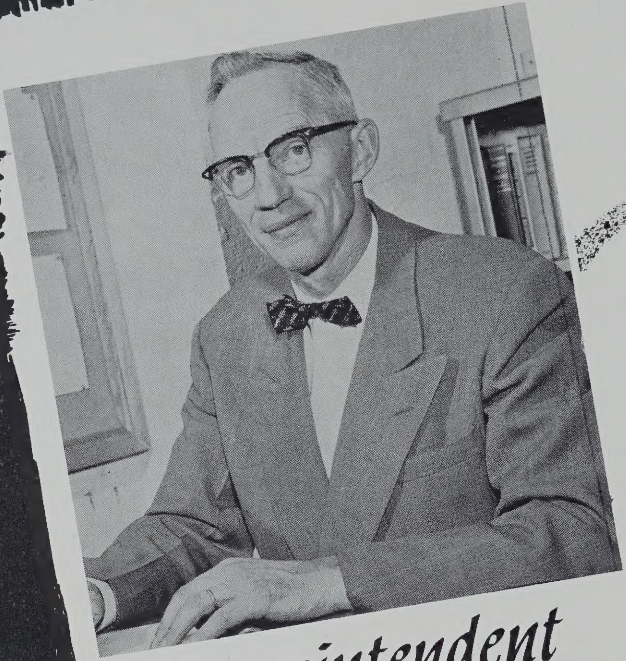


MISS MILOT



MR. PAYDEN





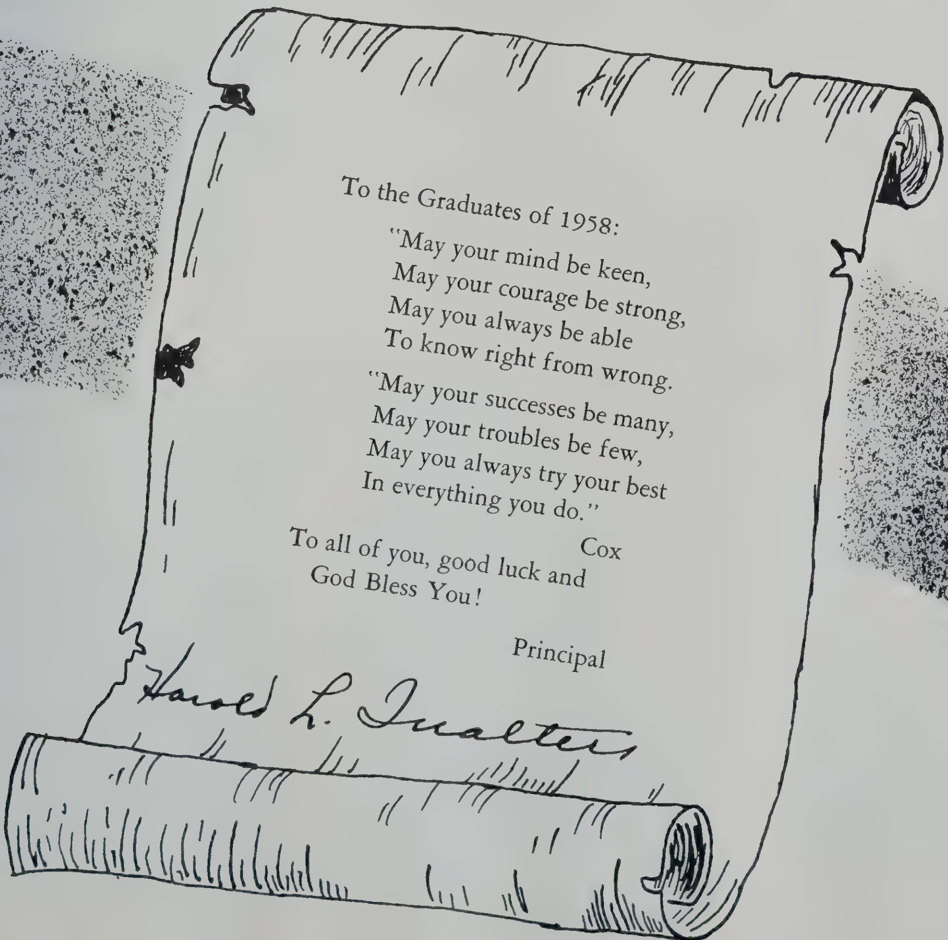
Superintendent

To the Class of '58:

You are graduating at a time when there are unlimited possibilities ahead of you. The fields of electronics, thermonuclear physics, medicine, etc., have hardly been opened, and you will be among those who help develop them to continue in the position of world leadership that this country has enjoyed for so long. You have been educated in the best educational system in the world—the American public school system. Remember that education is the key to success in the America of today.

Superintendent of Schools

Theron B. Thompson



To the Graduates of 1958:

"May your mind be keen,
May your courage be strong,
May you always be able
To know right from wrong.

"May your successes be many,
May your troubles be few,
May you always try your best
In everything you do."

Cox

To all of you, good luck and
God Bless You!

Class History

By
KATHRYN O'BRIEN

Glancing through the pages of our yearbook, the '58 Hornet, it seems incredible that four years have passed since we first entered Mansfield High School.

In September, 1954, we, the Class of '58, entered our modern high school for the first time. Those first days were hectic for everyone, but especially for us, as we were known as "Pea-Green" Freshmen, a name which became very familiar to us as the year progressed. The first thing our class attempted was the election of class officers. Under the supervision of Mr. James Wright and Mrs. Mildred Whitmore, we elected the following: John Shea, President; Donald Baptiste, Vice President; Mary Joan Palanza, Secretary; Louis Garland, Treasurer. By the first of the new year, we were well acquainted with the school and its operations. The boys, who participated in sports during our Freshman year, were: Donald Baptiste, Richard Blandori, James Card, Louis Cinelli, Karl Clemmey, Celestino DiGiovanni, John Falcone, Louis Garland, Charles Halbing, Bart Jackson, Douglas Mayall, Gerald Nordberg, William Purrier, John Shea, Joseph Wolak. The girls, who were active in sports, were: Doreen Albertini, Debrah Balch, Judith DeLutis, Judith Hawes, Geraldine Mei, Judy Sabin, Janice Ward, Eleanor Wynn. In the spring of '55, we held our social event of the year, a dance. It was called "The Cotton Ball" and proved very successful. After the first year of studying, planning future subjects, and extra activities, June finally came. This was the first Class Day Exercise we ever attended. At the close of the program, we all realized that the "Pea-Green" Freshmen were now "Gay Young" Sophomores.

Our summer vacation was all too short and with the approach of autumn we again tripped the corridors of M.H.S. As in the previous year, class officers had to be elected. They were as follows: John Shea, President; Donald Baptiste, Vice President; Doreen Albertini, Secretary; Diane Pomfret, Treasurer. We also had some new additions to our athlete's list. They were: Frederick Delfino, William Harlor, and Robert Tartufo. Several newcomers in the girls' ranks stepped up to demonstrate their athletic ability. They were: Sandra Baldini, Gail Dauphinee, Mary Joan Palanza and Katherine Vallett. Diane Pomfret was elected as a substitute to the M.H.S. Cheerleading squad. The first matter under consideration this year was our class rings. In the early part of the year, we chose our ring committee with Mrs. Whitmore as our chairman. After many meetings, we decided on a standard school ring, and we purchased them from Balfour's of Attleboro. Again, we turned to plans needed for our social event of the year. It was called "The April Wishing Well," a dance that was a financial and social success. June was once more upon us and another Class Day program was in order. We had now reached the half-way mark of our four-year term. "Jolly Juniors" was our name for the next year.

Our Junior year was to be an especially busy one for our class. We elected our class officers as follows: John Shea, President; Louis Garland, Vice President; Mary Joan Palanza, Secretary; Diane Pomfret, Treasurer. Both our athletic squads had the added support of: Harold Nordberg, Robert Mahoney, Angela Linari and Anthony Ferrara. Just before one of our major football games, we held our first dance of the year. It was called "Rolling the Rocketeers." It was enjoyed by all and was a success for our class. By the first of December, our class rings arrived and, of course, they were the rave of the school. Plans were now being made to put on the most popular and prominent social event of our four years of school . . . The Senior Reception. Decorations had to be made, entertainment had to be decided upon, and refreshments had to be furnished and prepared. In the midst of all this confusion, our class sponsored a Donut Drive. Everyone in our class canvassed the town soliciting orders for donuts and when they arrived, we all had an uproarious time distributing them. This drive was an outstanding financial venture thanks to our many friends and relatives. The next step our class took was to vote Loring Studios as our photographer for our Senior Class pictures. From the beginning of June, everything was buzzing in preparation for the Prom. Douglas Mayall and Catherine Gasson were chosen Co-Chairmen for our outstanding event. At this time, Doreen Albertini was chosen as delegate to Girls' State and George Upper to Boys' State. Towards the day of the Prom, everyone participated in the decorating of the gymnasium. Two days before the gala event, Class Day came around again. We were now at the top of the academic ladder; we were "Grand Old" Seniors. After wishing the departing farewell of their last day at school, we gave our friends one of the finest Senior Receptions in the history of Mansfield High School.

The sands of time ran out on our last summer vacation. Returning to school that September, we all realized that this would be the last year with our underclassmen friends. We all knew that soon we would be in the wide, wide world on our own. One important administrative change took place in Mansfield High School. Mr. Harry L. Mushroe, who had been associated with Mansfield for five years, now accepted a position as Superintendent of Schools in Provincetown, Massachusetts. The School Committee elected Mr. Harold L. Qualters to the office vacated by Mr. Mushroe. Under the direction of our three faithful advisors . . . Mrs. Francese Pearce, Mr. William Parsons and Mrs. Mildred Whitmore we elected our class officers for the last time. They were: John Shea, President; Louis Garland, Vice President; Doreen Albertini, Secretary; Sandra Baldini, Treasurer. Everyone wanted their Senior Class pictures by Christmas, so in the early fall we went into Boston and were photographed. Just before Christmas the pictures arrived and were passed out to interested underclassmen and fellow Seniors. We were all very proud.

At the first of the year, try-outs for the traditional Class Play took place. Under the direction of Mr. Daniel DeCourcy, the cast for "The Goose Hangs High" included: "Bernard," George Upper; "Eunice," Constance Casey; "Noel," Charles Halbing; "Leo Day," Louis Garland; "Rhoda," Rita Ricci; "Julia," Gail Dauphinee; "Mrs. Bradley," Debrah Balch; "Hugh," Sumner Merrill; "Ronald," Thomas McGlashing; "Lois," Katherine Vallett; "Bradley," John Falcone; "Dagmar," Sandra Baldini; "Kimberley," Richard Blandori. Patricia Crotty served as Secretary to the Director. Thanks to the many advertisements of our friends and merchants, and the fine dramatic ability of the cast, the play was enthusiastically received.

Our greatest project, the yearbook, was beginning to get under way. Under the supervision of Mr. Robert Payden, Co-Editors, Patricia Gentili and George Upper, Business Manager, Arlene Rodrick, with the help of the yearbook staff of 1958, we made our yearbook rank high among those of previous yearbooks. This year our class also put on four dances. They were: "Welcome Freshmen," "The Victory Dance," "Club '58," and "The Mardi Gras." All of these events were well attended by the student body and, therefore, very successful. In the middle of February, our Principal, Mr. Harold L. Qualters, announced the Class Honors. Essayists: George Upper, Patricia Gentili, Frederick Fletcher, and Arlene Rodrick; Class History: Kathryn O'Brien; Class Will: Judith Hawes and Ellen Wills; Class Prophecy: Gail Dauphinee and Doreen Albertini. John Falcone was voted to represent us at the State House as our Good Government Representative. Judith DeLutis was chosen Good Citizen, sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Throughout the four years, our class was very proud of our cheerleaders. Again and again, they had won competitions and tournaments in behalf of M.H.S. Members of our class in the squad were: Co-Captains, Mary Joan Palanza and Diane Pomfret, Sandra Baldini, Gail Dauphinee, Katherine Vallett and Janice Ward.

We then decided our Class Colors would be mint green and yellow. Our Class Flower is the yellow rose and our Class Motto is "In Ourselves, Our Future Lies."

The closing exercises for our class then began. Sunday, June 8, was Baccalaureate Sunday for the class. Monday, June 9, was Class Day in the high school auditorium at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, June 10, was Graduation at 8:00 p.m. The last important event of the year, The Senior Reception, was on June 13 at 8:00 p.m. in the Don Currivan Gymnasium.

In these few pages, I have tried to gather all the important historical data about our class. We, the Class of 1958, will now venture forth in the wide, wide world, to take our place among the graduates of Mansfield High School.

Class Will

By JUDITH HAWES and ELLEN WILLS

We, the graduating class of 1958, hereby departing from M.H.S. with sorrow and joy in our hearts, declare this to be our last will and testament, revoking all previous wills.

To Mr. Qualters we leave an electronic eye to solve the mystery of those crowded corridors.

To Mr. Thompson we leave a Thunderbird.

To the faculty we leave so that you may rest in peace.

To the Freshmen we leave the thought of three more years.

To the Sophomores we leave our dignified behavior and noble manners.

To the Juniors we leave the hope that their Club "59" will be even more successful than ours was.

The following are individual bequests:

Richard Ackles leaves his hot car and trips to Jolly Cholly's to join the Marines.

Jim Card leaves the North Hops to Richie Harwood.

Susan Maxwell and Alice Boynton leave to become two of America's best nurses.

Leon Grant leaves his title, "Class Pest," to William Pelton who we are sure will live up to it.

Judy DeLutis trades in her shorthand books for cookbooks.

Ellie Wynn leaves with her pony tail so that Jackie Shea won't bother it anymore.

Bing Cinelli leaves his basketball skill to Ronnie Sankey.

Marion Wellman and Doug Mayall leave to join the comic strip, "Mutt and Jeff."

Margaret Fuller leaves her ability to get along with Mrs. Warnick to the Sophomore Home Ec Class.

Angela Linari leaves to roam the corridors of B. C.

Donnie Baptiste leaves that ever-favorite song "I'm Late, I'm Late for a Very Important Date."

Gerry Mei leaves her athletic title and sports enthusiasm to her sister Mary Lou.

Joey Wolak leaves his many girlfriends to the wolves.

Bart Jackson leaves his many Happy Birthdays to any underclassman who can count them.

Debrah Balch leaves her gray hair to Leslie who worries too much about school.

Joanie Streeter leaves her friendly manner to Diane Liberatore.

Tom McGlashing leaves his curly hair to David Piasecki.

George Upper leaves his high band hat to the Hartin twins. Don't fret girls, this will make you look taller.

Nick Carpeno leaves his ability to get along with others to Stewart Olney.

Ann Razee leaves her long hair to Ellen Bolin. The color is wrong, but there will be no trouble in fixing that.

Julie DiFiore, Nancy Gentili, and Kathy O'Brien leave their trips to East Providence, Rhode Island, to Rosemary Uva, which will be her first stop on the way to Florida.

Bill Harlor leaves his small feet to Eddie "Gunboats" Blandori.

Connie Casey leaves her acting ability to Juliana Kane.

Bill LeClair leaves his car with the nine lives.

Kathy Vallett leaves Tom's Spa to anyone who can manage to close the doors at 5:00.

Joan Beatty leaves her homemaking talents.

Jimmy Goddard leaves a lunch to next year's Senior who would like to start a cafeteria during Activity Period.

Dick Blandori leaves his Hornet Car to anyone who can manage to get it out of his yard.

Tommy Fiske leaves some advice: "Make the most of school while you're here."

Arlene Rodrick leaves her position as head majorette to Celine Melchiorri.

Bob Mahoney leaves his flashy shirts to Sandy Costanzo.

Red Purrier leaves to join the Marines to get away from it all.

Gail Dauphinee leaves her all-round personality to Marion Gasson.

Wayne Eaton leaves a tip to Mr. Payden's P. O. D. class of '59, "He's a great guy, but oh! you'd better be good on his bad days."

Fred Fletcher leaves his accomplishments on the honor roll to anyone who likes to study.

Johnny Falcone gives Johnny Antosca back his football position along with a thank-you note.

Judy Sabin leaves the prescriptions at Lilly's to her brother Kit.

Fred Marland leaves his unspoken words to George Hodson.

Mary Joan Palanza and Diane Pomfret leave their places as co-captains to Judy Santucci and Gere Todesco.

Bobby Tartufo leaves his rattle to next year's 190-pound football baby.

Teddy Farrell leaves his artistic ability to Jimmie Wills.

Pat Gentili leaves her book "How to Drive Into a Telephone Pole" to Mr. Pierce's Driver Ed Class.

Sumner Merrill leaves his acting days as Hugh and those wonderful days courting Dagmar.

Pat Crotty leaves her two sisters, Jackie and Mary, to suffer.

Janie Ward leaves singing "Oh Happy Day."

Teddy Copparini leaves his slow calm manner to Jeffry Watts.

Charlie Halbing leaves his petunias to Mr. DeCourcy.

Ed Morrison leaves his love of cows for the real thing.

Sandra Baldini leaves her stylish clothes to Brenda Pedini.

Allen Willis leaves buzzing with the hornets.

Jackie Shea leaves while the going is good.

Carol Johnson leaves her shy ways and quiet manner to Pat DesChamps.

Paul Combis leaves the cruises in his shiny blue car to anyone who has a lot of time.

Jerry Nordberg leaves his gab sessions with his girl, Ruthie, to Geoff Stearns and Suzie Bartlett.

John Freeman leaves his knowledge of current events to Miss Welch.

Margaret Gulan, "Margo," leaves "The Walk" to Claire Ferris.

Karl Clemmey leaves behind his fond memories of M.H.S.

Fred Delfino leaves the title "Most Dependable" and "The Father of Our Class."

Fred Fisher leaves the South Common telephone booth to next year's lover so he can talk in private.

Rita Ricci leaves Miss Milot looking for another helper in Activity Period.

Larry Griswold leaves his interest in girls to Normie Hawes.

Frannie Jones leaves for Arthur Murray's Dance Studio to give him a few lessons on his famous Fox Trot.

John Chandler and Bobby Muldoon leave in a hurry to find Cardy at the hop.

And as for us, we leave before our classmates catch up with us.

Class Prophecy

by

GAIL DAUPHINEE and DOREEN ALBERTINI

After many years of saving and budgeting our money, we were finally able to make our dream come true. We were going to travel around the world. What made it even more exciting was that this was a special tour. We were going around the world in eight days.

In commemoration of his father's spectacular picture, Mike Todd, Jr. was offering a special tour. Just ten years ago this very month, that great movie, "Around the World in 80 Days," had been released. Due to the improvements in travel, the time element had been shortened to eight days.

Mike Todd, Jr. was on hand to greet the passengers. As we boarded the plane, a friendly voice called out to us. It was Pat Crotty. We found out later that Pat had gone to Hollywood immediately after graduation to try out for the movies. Although she had failed her screen test, she landed a job with Mike Todd Studios as Todd's personal secretary.

"Fasten your safety belts," we heard from the rear of the plane. As we turned toward the voice, much to our amazement, the stewardess was one of our classmates, Judy Sabin. Continuing our conversation, we discovered that our pilot was "Red" Purrier assisted by his able co-pilot Ed Morrison, two more members of our graduating class.

Several hours had passed before we landed in London. Stepping into the taxi cab, we recognized Paul Combis, English accent and all. After talking a while we learned that he had gone into business with Ted Copparini. Paul drives the cabs, and Ted services them.

On our way to the hotel we noticed a distinguished gentleman walking out of No. 10 Downing Street. It was Sir George Upper, assistant to the Prime Minister.

Arriving at the Fog Mansion, owned and operated by that wanted gambler John "Fingers" Falcone, we were startled by the appearance of the million dollar playboy, B. T. Jackson IV. He told us in a suave tone, "I've left my "dying" business to further my ventures in the wide world." He then retired to his favorite spot on the corner and started to whistle his old theme song, "Standing on the Corner, Watching All the Girls Go By."

We walked over to the reception desk and found Nancy Gentili waiting to greet us. She assigned us to our rooms and told us that a few of our old friends were also staying in the hotel. In Room 215 Alice Boynton, the famed Red Cross nurse, was in London on a goodwill tour. Across the hall in Room 221 was the loud politician Charles J. Halbing. Mr. Halbing is trying to get back some of Uncle Sam's money from the British. On the same floor in Room 222, the snores of Pudgie Nordberg could be heard throughout the day.

We settled down in our apartment and then headed for London's famous restaurant, The Towers, owned by Sumner Merrill. The chef at Sumner's establishment was none other than Larry Griswold, famous for his English muffins and Irish stew.

Heading for the fashion center of the world was our next voyage. We boarded the boat for gay Paree and were welcomed by Captain Richard Ackles. He had gone into business for himself after being discharged from the Marines. Sunbathing on the deck was that famous movie actress Connie Casey. Miss Casey is currently co-starring with Gerry Nordberg in "The Man With the Golden Tooth."

Midway across the English Channel our attention was centered on a figure swimming heartily. It was none other than the famous distance swimmer Carol "I'll never drown" Johnson. She was now attempting to set a new world mark for swimming the choppy waters.

Arriving in Paris, we settled down at a nice continental hotel and then headed for a typical French night spot, Hernando's Hideaway. Strutting back and forth on the Hideaway floor was the exotic dancer, Margo "Bubbles" Gulan.

A lifelong ambition to own a Paris original was fulfilled at Garnie's Gob Shop, co-owned by those two elegant dressers, Sandra Baldini and Louie Garland. They gave us a bargain on a chemise dress for only $199.99. Ha, the only thing original was the price!

Our second day was highlighted by a basketball game between Christian Dior's Dressmakers and the Elgin Baylor All-Stars. Ace forward on Elgin's Stars was Billy "Shoebox" Harlor. Billy was kicked out of the game for tripping, but he thoroughly denies the affair.

Next stop on our trip was Italy. Since the majority of our class came from this country we were particularly interested in the sights. We topped off our visit with a stop at Mighty Mutsi's, bitter rival of Jolly Cholly's. Mutsi's first words were, "We specialize in everything from ravioli to peanut butter sandwiches."

Tuning in on the Italian radio station, WOW, we heard the voice of the great prima donna Angelina Linari singing her top tune, "My Sweet Irish Rose." It's a wonder she has lasted so long on the station!

Later, on the radio program the All-Italian halfback for the champion Venice Spaghetti Venders, Tino DiGiovanni, gave a talk on the fundamentals of dodging big salamis.

Fredrico Delfino, the producer, impressed us with his Saturday Spectacular. It headlined such stars as Nicholas Carpeno, Rita Ricci, Julie DiFiore, Anthony Ferrara, and Mary Joan Palanza. The story is based on Louis "Pasteur" Cinelli's homogenized cow. Although this is Fredrico's first venture into pastoral literature, with such a distinguished world-wide cast he's sure to succeed.

Next we went to the embassy to secure visas for Russia. Behind the counter, munching on a hot piece of pizza, sat our old classmate Gerry Mei. Gerry did us the favor of purchasing two tickets straight from her boss, Joe Wolak, the ex-Russian czar. Joe was very happy to see us and explained he could get us started to Russia on the next train.

At the station we met Fred Marland, now a successful businessman selling insurance in Russia. He had just returned from that country and was headed homeward to the U.S. Fred told us that in Russia our old friends Bill LeClair and Wayne Eaton were now running a booming coal mine in upper Siberia. We also learned that Jimmy Goddard had established a fur trapping company.

As we boarded the train, we noticed Fred Weber, adorned in a bright blue suit with a black conductor's hat, yelling "All aboard for sunny Russia, land of opportunity." He didn't exactly sell us on the opportunity angle, but we were still going ahead with our journey. Seated across the aisle from us was Kathie Vallett, that retired love lorn columnist of "Love, Lose, and Learn." Kathie managed to fill our trip with gossip she had acquired from opening other people's mail.

At the Moscow station we were greeted by a hearty "hello." We turned quickly and there in the midst of the crowd stood Joanie Streeter. Joanie, yelling and screaming, ran over to us. We discovered after a minute of explanation that she had just been involved in an accident and needed some money, fast. How do you like that? Our first meeting and already we were lending money!

Walking into the Moscow station, we saw a tall man we recognized to be John Freeman selling tickets to a rock 'n' roll show at the Down Town Hall. The show was featuring that cat singer Jimmy "At the hop" Card. He has just released his album called "Moonlight Rock 'N' Roll." Playing in his band are Freddie "Flattop" Fletcher, playing on the drums, Dougie "Dig Ya Later" Mayall, on the sax, and Allen "Hotlips" Willis on the trumpet.

On the Moscow main drag we saw Leon "The Lion" Grant roaring along in a red and pink 1968 V-8 Sputnik. Oops, he just hit a dull blue 1952 Chevy, and a barrel chested Portuguese Naval officer is getting out and he isn't selling linguisa. Why it's Don Baptiste, the high ranking admiral who led the Portuguese out of three wars before something happened to them.

We passed the art studio of the famous artist, Ted Farrell. Ted has just finished a sequence entitled "Open the Iron Door, Richard" depicting the average Russian listening to Truth over AWOL. This radio program originates in lower Morocco with Count Basie Chandler as narrator.

Farther along, we came across a slick dressed individual who turned out to be none other than Jackie Shea on his way to the Kremlin on top secret business.

Following closely behind, was the Moscow Monitor reporter Pat Gentili trying to get a scoop on Shea's latest date. The last time she went after him she wound up in Alaska . . . Shea had a date with an Eskimo!

The next day we purchased tickets to Arabia. Our old friend, The Maharajah of Madagascar, Francis Jones, had invited us to spend the day at his tent with his forty wives. We were greeted by his muscle men Tom McGlashing and Fred Fisher, equipped with the latest snap open swords. They took us directly to the tent of the Maharajah. Squatted at the high Sultan's side were beautiful dancers whom we recognized as Ann Razee, Arlene Rodrick, Ellie Wynn, and Debrah Balch. They informed us that the Maharajah had other plans, mainly forty-two wives. Quickly we raced to the nearest camel stand and found the old Arab, Tom Fiske, ready with the fastest pair of camels in all the pack. In a matter of hours we had crossed the Saudi-Arabian Desert and then hopped a slow boat to China.

Entering Hong Kong, we could see a bright sign advertising Karl Clemmey Tanks, "tanks to hold rice for your family." We hailed a speedy rickshaw as it zipped through the streets. The motor turned out to be Robert Mahoney, fastest taxi in China. Bob gave a bargain on a city tour, including the rice paddies and the Tea House of the August Moon. On the way we saw Janie Ward and Diane Pomfret's Chinese hairdressing shop. Next door to it was Bob Tartufo's Chinese laundromat originally known as Ching Foo's Cheap Cleaners.

We stayed in China for the night and then flew on to Hawaii. Coming toward the landing strip we could see the swaying palm trees and the gayly colored shirts. A few of the native dancers, decked out in their Sunday hula skirts greeted us. They were Suzanne Maxwell, Judy Hawes, and Margaret Fuller, three of the best in the country.

The hostess Joan Beatty bade us farewell and good luck on our return to the States. She had been on our plane since London, but we just came across her as she had been too occupied in the pilot's cabin.

As we walked down the main street, we chanced to meet Ellen Wills. We learned that she had taken over her father's business and had come to Hawaii to sell fire insurance for grass skirts. Further on down the street we stopped for lunch at the "Hawaiian Hut" owned by Kathy O'Brien. She told us she had taken advantage of her Homemaking Award and had settled in Hawaii to teach the natives, of all things, how to prepare Irish dishes.

It had been over a week since we left on our dream trip, and now we were headed back home aboard a Super Constellation piloted by Major Robert Muldoon. We were seated across from two of our married friends, Judy DeLutis, and Marion Wellman. They had won a vacation for two on the $64 Question and had left their husbands home.

As we sat back in our seats, enriched with many cherished memories we wondered what tomorrow would bring. The future is always uncertain, but we can always hope that it will be filled with happiness and prosperity.

This club is really appreciated in our school. Whenever any class needs a film one of these members is always around and willing to give up his time and classes for the enjoyment of others. Mr. Payden has helped the projector club become essential to the school and to be recognized as a service club.

Art Club

This year the Art Club has shown its talent in many ways. The members have arranged the exhibitions that we see throughout the school in the showcases. Mrs. Spanos has done a tremendous job by bringing out the creative ability of her club members.

Junior Secretaries

Under the direction of Miss Driscoll, these girls are assigned certain teachers to help. They type, mimeograph tests, and do any other secretarial work needed.

Assembly Committee

The Assembly Committee, under the supervision of Mr. DeCourcy, has put on a number of successful and enjoyable assemblies this year. The Christmas assembly, which included a variety of serious and gay entertainment, was the highlight assembly of the year. This committee has provided enjoyable and appropriate entertainment for the various holidays.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses Club has had many guest speakers at their meetings. The Club consists of girls who are interested in being nurses.

Electronics Club

The members of the Electronics Club have been working hard toward their goal of earning a ham radio operator's license. Dr. Downes has given all his free time to teach them the fundamentals of radio operation.

Glee Club

Directed by Miss Mary Shaheen, the club has performed at many school functions, and other organizations, providing enjoyable entertainment.

Science Club

Each week, the Science Club has new activities chosen by two boys who are responsible for each meeting. They go on field trips where they can study nature at its best. With its twenty-two members and Mr. Sullivan as their guide, we are sure they will certainly prove successful in future years.

Girls' Gym Club

The girls in Gym Club are taught to work on apparatus and tumbling similar to the boys. They will appear in a May exhibition.

Boys' Gym Club

The Boys' Gym Club, under the supervision of Coach Parsons, has shown remarkable abilities in previous exhibitions. Apparatus work and tumbling are just two of their specialties.

Boosters Club

This club, under the supervision of Mrs. Pearce, has promoted a lot of school spirit and interest from the entire student body. Their posters and signs decorating the halls have given our boys a lot of confidence and support.

The Tatler

The Tatler has kept M.H.S. well informed on what goes on in the high school. Mr. Williams, their advisor, has helped a great deal to make this newspaper a success.

Mechanical Drawing

Mr. Walker helps the boys in this club to exploit the primary functions of mechanical engineering.

Photography Club

The Photography Club, under the direction of Dr. Downes, learns to take and develop pictures and at present are learning to enlarge pictures.

Driver Education

With Mr. Pierce as their supervisor, the students of Driver Education become capable of passing a written examination as well as a road test, both given by the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Woodworking

The woodworking club is a new club formed this year for boys who are interested in improving their manual skills. It is under the direction of Mr. Eastman.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club has been a great help in our assemblies. The club helps the underclassmen become familiar with the stage so that in their Senior year, there will be a wide selection for the Class Play.

Dance Band

This group was organized this year. They have played at several school affairs under the direction of Mr. Gallo. We feel sure that this band will continue to be a success in the future.

The 1957 edition of the gridiron "Green Hornets" was one of the flashiest outfits that ever defended the school colors. Led by co-captains Don Baptiste and Lou Garland, the Hornets rolled up a creditable seven win, one loss, one tie record for the season, amassing 234 points to 79 for their foes. The lone defeat came at the hands of undefeated Oliver Ames while the tie occurred against Case High of Swansea. The Hornets were highly successful in their traditional battles with North Attleboro and Foxboro. Before a big crowd at Memorial Park the Green trounced North, 14-7. Then on Thanksgiving morn the Hornets closed the season with a tremendous 52-7 pasting over Foxboro before a crowd of 2,500. Coaches Bill Parsons and Bill Sullivan truly deserve a good hand for issuing this fine squad.

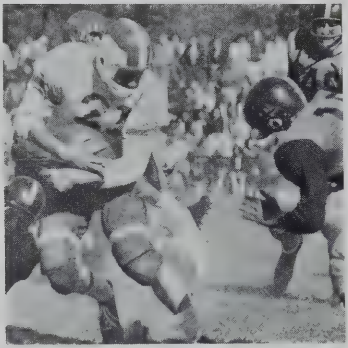
TINO DIGIOVANNI

Mansfield 21-Somerest 1: The Hornets started off the season with a clear cut victory over one of the better teams on the schedule. Sharp blocking broke Baptiste and DiGiovanni into the Raider secondary all afternoon with the latter ringing up a pair of TD's. Antosca scored the other MHS marker after engineering a long drive goalward. Blandori and Day stood out in the Hornet line both on offense and defense.

Mansfield 32-Franklin 13: Losing Antosca in the early part of the game due to a broken leg, the green showed great spirit as they dumped Franklin with John Falcone at the helm. Falcone came into the game at a moment's notice and promptly threw a touchdown pass to Garland. DiGiovanni again scored two while Baptiste and soph Santucci tallied the others. It was a tough break to lose Antosca so early in the prosperous season but Falcone showed that he'd be in there plugging.



Mansfield 7-North Easton 14: The Hornets fell to defeat against unbeaten Easton on Homecoming Day. However, Easton had to really fight to pull this one out. After Easton went in front the crowd groaned . . . but Jackie Shea scampered down the sidelines to knot the game and once more glee was aroused. Ames came up with the clincher at the close of the second period on a pass to Tyler. Baptiste was chosen the game's outstanding player.

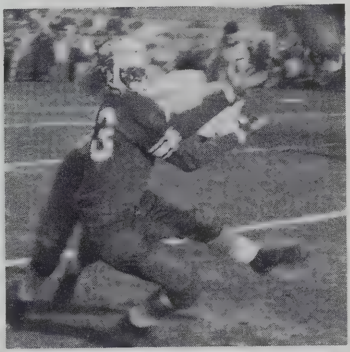
Mansfield 26-Canton 13: Lowly Canton was unable to contain the Hornet attack, especially the long runs by Shea that broke their back. Canton struck early in the game for one of their scores on a quick pass that put them ahead, 7-0, but it wasn't until the last minute of the game that they tallied again against the jayvees! The game was played on a Monday because of rain on Saturday.

Mansfield 32-St. Joseph's 6: The Hornets were scheduled to play Dighton but Narry League school cancelled the engagement because of the flu. Thus St. Joseph's of Salem was the new M.H.S. foe. The much smaller Salem club was no contest for the locals. A 95-yard kickoff return by Jerry Nordberg highlighted the activities.

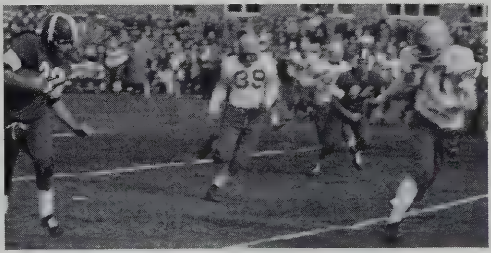
Mansfield 6-Swansea 6: In a tense, dramatic game the Hornets and Case fought to deadlock. It was a great show of rock ribbed defenses that halted each other's backs all afternoon. The only Hornet score came when Lou Garland recovered a fumble in the end zone while Case scored through the air when they couldn't find their way through the Hornet line of Blandori, Day, Sarro, Stearns, Garland, Harlor, Clemmey, and DeGirolamo.

Mansfield 13-N. Attleboro 7: The flashy Red Rocketeers were unable to show their wares as once again the big Hornet wall crushed them time and time again. Great blocks by Stearns, Harlor and Tartufo set up the first TD by DiGiovanni while Harlor took a Falcone pass for the second tally. A good sized crowd filled Memorial Park for the big game in the area that day. A mammouth pep rally the day before got the school spirit to its peak.

Mansfield 45-Westwood 6: The Hornet powerhouse really rolled as they scored against Westwood at will. The Wolverines could do little running or passing while the Green were having a field day, both passing and running. The Hornets scored on a pass, a punt return, an interception and a few runs. It was the first game between the two schools and Westwood got a good taste of the Hornet power. Day, Stearns and Blandori were the standouts of defense.



Mansfield 52-Foxboro 7: Scoring in every period, the Hornets plastered Foxboro like never before. DiGiovanni scored four times to pace the attack while Blandori was the man on defense, even scoring a point. Shea tallied twice, Santucci and Harlor once. Blandori and DiGiovanni were awarded the Don Currivan Trophy as the game's outstanding players.



Cheerleaders

Kneeling: Co-Captains Diane Pomfret and Mary Joan Palanza. Standing: Judy Santucci, Sandra Baldini, Kathie Vallett, Gail Dauphinee, Janie Ward and Gerry Todesco.

Here is the pep and vigor of M.H.S. The pert Hornet cheerleaders who shout out the school spirit, are a stirring example at all athletic events. They cheer the Green Hornets to victory and have also shown their own winning ways in cheering competitions. Displaying unmatched precision, appearance, and shouting skills the M.H.S. cheerleaders walked off with the first prize at the Dedham Competition. Their beautiful trophy is shown in the above picture.

The ten girl squad is led by co-captains Diane Pomfret and Mary Joan Palanza. Besides these two, Sandra Baldini, Gail Dauphinee, Kathie Vallett, and Janie Ward make up the senior members. The rest of the squad includes Judy Santucci, Gerry Todesco, and subs Jeanie Houghton and Barbie Donlan.

BASKETBALL ...

The "Green Hornets" were court surprises of the Hockamock League. With only one veteran returning to the hoop scene the outlook for a successful season was rather dim . . . if that's the correct word. However, under the whip of Coach Bill Sullivan the scrappy Hornets fought themselves right into second place with a 10-4 league slate. They completed the season with a 12-7 record, two of the losses in Tourney play.

The Hornets opened the season with a dismal 35-27 loss to Franklin and then went on to set a new M.H.S. scoring record averaging 66.1 per game. After the Franklin defeat the Green hoopsters took eight straight before losing to heralded Oliver Ames, 80-69 before a crowd of 1500 at Currivan Memorial Gym.

The locals lost out to Abington in the first round of the South Shore Tourney, 73-68 in overtime. The Green also bowed in the inital round of the highly rated Tech Tourney to Don Bosco.

Pacing the courtmen this season was Geoff Stearns with 303 points to place him fifth among the all-time high scorers. Two others that nitched their names in the scoring annals were Ronnie Sankey (257) and Tino DiGiovanni (232). Plugging Billy Harlor netted 197 while Bing Cinelli scored 180 to round out the starting five's records . . . each of them averaged better than 10 per game.

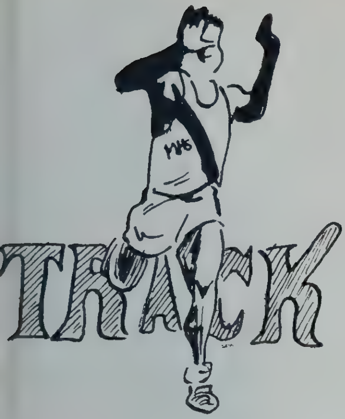
CENTRAL



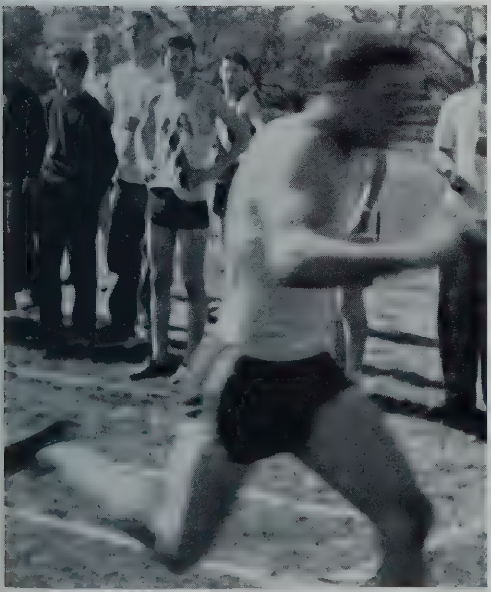
The "Green Hornet" cinder squad has been working under rough conditions for the past several years. Despite this drawback they've proved to be a hearty group. Coach Bill Parsons has put his squad through the paces for the last two years. His crew has won many of the duals and triangles with towns such as Foxboro, Sharon, Canton, and Randolph.

However, the big meets, like the Hockamock and the South Shore, leave the locals far behind. The squad is made up primarily of underclassmen with only a handful of seniors . . . Jackie Shea, Tino DiGiovanni and Jerry Nordberg. Shea and DiGiovanni are the main point-getters for the Hornets. Both are sprinters with DiGiovanni using the 100 as his main event and Shea the 220. Nordberg is the big distance man but sophs like Stan Dill and Fran Vicino are coming along. The hefty Hornets like Tony Day heave the shot put.

The Hockamock Meet features such clubs as Oliver Ames, Canton, Sharon, Stoughton, Randolph, Foxboro and Mansfield. The Hornets have placed in the lower section of the meet for the last two years while Stoughton and Ames have run off with the top honors.

Down at Rockland the big South Shore Meet is held. The Hornets have been strong in the relay in recent years, placing second in '56 and '57. Shea and DiGiovanni are the only current members to win ribbons at this meet in individual events, however.

Good luck to the hard working track squad this season. We give you our best for a successful season and triumphs at the Hockamock and South Shore Meets.



Tino winning the 100.

The girls' basketball team ended the season with a creditable five win, five loss record. Miss Mahoney's Hornettes overtook Attleboro twice; North Attleboro, Walpole, and Foxboro once apiece to make up the victories. Led by high scoring Co-Captains Doreen Albertini and Mary Lou Mei, the court queens rolled up an amazing 55-21 victory over Attleboro to highlight the season. Miss Albertini gave the best individual performance with a 32-point output against Attleboro.

The slugging girls' softball team won five out of their last six games to give them a respectable 7-5 record. This streak included wins over Oliver Ames, Sharon, North Attleboro, Norton and Dominican Academy. By beating North Easton the Hornettes revenged an earlier 41-0 trouncing.

The softball nine had no single star but a bevy of belters. They included Judy Briggs, Nancy Ockert, Judy Hawes, Doreen Albertini, Debrah Balch, Janie Ward, Alberta Young, Pat Collett, Pat Winton, Virginia Baldini, Rosemarie Ricci and Joan Delliacano.

Only Miss Briggs and Miss Ockert graduated leaving a promising future for Miss Mahoney's '58 club. We give her our best wishes for a successful season.
